

Certified Prevention Specialist Training Verification Form

Instructions

What This Is For: Prevention Specialists provide prevention services for behavioral health and substance use concerns. To become certified, you must show that you've done at least 120 hours of training. Here's what counts:

- The training must have happened within the last 10 years. Note: Training from college or university degree programs does not expire and can count toward the requirement.
 - Training certificates or other eligible documentation must be provided for each claimed training.

Required Training Hours by Topic

You must complete the following minimum number of hours in each topic:

Topic	Required Hours
Understanding Addiction	24 hours
Prevention-specific Ethics	6 hours
Planning and Evaluation	30 hours
Prevention Education and Service Delivery	15 hours
Communication	10 hours
Community Organization	15 hours
Public Policy and Environmental Change	10 hours
Professional Responsibilities	10 hours

Ways to Meet the Training Requirement

You can meet the 120-hour requirement in one of two ways:

- Option 1: Complete multiple training events that add up to at least 120 hours and cover all the required topics.
 - Option 2: Complete a single training program of 120 or more hours that covers all required topics and provides one certificate of completion.
