

Master's Level Certified Addiction Professional Training Verification Form

Instructions

What This Is For: Master's Level Addiction Professionals provide services to individuals with substance use conditions. To become certified, you must show that you've done at least 161 hours of training. Here's what counts:

- The training must have happened within the last 10 years. Note: Training from college or university degree programs does not expire and can count toward the requirement.
 - Training certificates or other eligible documentation must be provided for each claimed training.

Required Training Hours by Topic

You must complete the following minimum number of hours in each topic:

Topic	Required Hours
Understanding Addiction	45 hours
Treatment Knowledge	45 hours
Application to Practice	20 hours
Professional Responsibilities	20 hours
Clinical Supervision	16 hours
Electives	15 hours

Ways to Meet the Training Requirement

You can meet the 161-hour requirement in one of two ways:

- Option 1: Complete multiple training events that add up to at least 161 hours and cover all the required topics.
 - Option 2: Complete a single training program of 161 or more hours that covers all required topics and provides one certificate of completion.
