

Approved Single-Source Training Verification Form

DIRECTIONS

This form allows for documenting FCB approved single-source training hours as required for the credential you are applying for. This form may not be completed for multi-source training hours. The applicant completes all required fields of data on the Training Verification Form and uploads the completed form and a copy of the single-source training certificate to their online application prior to submitting.

All information must be TYPED. Handwritten forms will be denied.

If submitting by hard copy, please attach a copy of the single-source training certificate to the completed Training Verification Form and send as instructed below. The single-source training certificate must be attached with the form.
